Letter from Washington.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.

The preparation of the message, returning the re-construction bill to Congress, is now in progress, and those who have the confidence of the President assert that the reasons for the President's objection, will be urged in a most elaborate and conclusive style. The friends of Mr. Johnson contradict every assertion that he is in the least alarmed at the prospect of congressional action should he pocket the bill, and not veto it, which will give a chance to the Radicals to make it a law. The President knows, as does every one else, who is conversant with the declarations of the majority in Congress, that should this bill be defeated by its being retained in the Executive Department, the next Congress would, immediately after assembling, frame one much more rigid and obnoxious in its provisions—admitting that to be possible—and press it to a passage. The objections which will be urged to the present measure are all to be based upon Constitutional grounds, and will be elaborately set forth; but there is no idea in existence that they will be considered. If they should be, (in a fair manner) it is very possible that some who voted for its passage would change their votes upon the final reckoning.

[From the New York Journal of Commerce.]

Military Reconstruction Bill.

Much as we desire to see once more the harmony of the Executive and Legislative departments of the government, and injurious as their disagreement is to the business interests of the country, we cannot believe it to be the duty of the President to give his sanction to this bill. If it must assume the form of law, let it stand before the country as the law of Congress without the approval of the Executive department. It seems to us impossible that it should ever receive the sanction of the Judiciary.

For the present we shall do little more than make a few comments upon the preamble to this bill. The preamble is in these words:

"Whereas, No legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal republican State governments can be legally established: therefore,"

1. "No legal State governments exist in the rebel States of Virginia," &c. If there be no legal State governments then everything done in the Legislatures or Courts, or in any other departments of these governments, are void.—The judgments obtained in their Courts are void; the criminals confined in their prisons, by sentence pronounced in the State Courts, are entitled to immediate discharge! There must be a general jail delivery. These are the necessary consequences of illegal State governments.

2. "No adequate protection for life or property" now exists in these States. There are the same constitutions and laws for the protection of life or property in these States, that existed before the rebellion, and these have always been regarded as consistent with republican governments. The discriminations made in their laws to the prejudice of the slave are now abolished, as slavery itself is abolished. These States seceded from the Union on the theory that a State had a right to secede under the Constitution; the contrary doctrine was established by legislative and legal decisions betore the rebellion; it is now established by the sword, and the decision has been submitted to and acquiesced in every one of these States.

The doctrine thus vindicated is, that these States were never separated from the Union, but always formed parts of it, notwithstanding their attempts to secede. There never was a legal separation. Now, as these States, quasi States have repealed their legislation contravening this doctrine, they stand just where they were before they rebelled. This position has in more than in once instance been recognized by the Government. As States they are in statu quo ante bellum. They are not rebel States any longer; to call them rebel States, as this preamble does, has no authority in the facts of the case; as States they have returned to their allegiance; they have repented of their great error; it is untair, unpatriotic, it is libellous to call them rebel States at this time. There may be rebels in these States, and they are doubtless liable to punishment, but that punishment must be according to law, and it must be declared and pronounced by the courts of law. Congress has no right to administer the law and pronounce such punishment upon individuals. Laws may be framed and passed by Congress comformable to the Constitution, but they must be administered and executed by the Courts.

Every native or naturalized inhabitant of these States lately in rebellion, is a citizen of the United States, and as such he can plead and be impleaded in the Courts of the United States, and he can set up for his protection the Constitution of the United States. There is no court or tribunal in the land can deny him this right.

Now, if a citizen of the United States in time of peace is liable to be deprived of his right to a trial for an alleged crime by a jury, and tried by a military commission under a Constitution which expressly provides that "the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury," then the provisions of second, third and fourth of said bill can be enforced by the Courts, otherwise they can never be so enforced.

Some years ago, Wilburn Waters, the great bear hunter and hermit of White Top mountain, was supposed to have been killed by a wounded bear, and his death announced in the newspapers. After a few days he emerged from the jungle where he had been hunting, alive and whole, but the bear had not fared so well, for he brought out the carcase of the animal with him. But poor Wilburn, we fear, has gone the way of the earth at last, and that, too, by the hands of an assassin. During the winter he had killed a number of wolves, in the mountains of Johnson county, Tenn. He had taken the scalps to Taylorsville, where he drew his bounty of $200. On his way home he was murdered and robbed. He was a good man, perfectly inoffensive and upright, and the most successful bear, wolf and bee hunter in all the mountain region. He claimed to be a half-breed Catawba Indian, and had all the marks and characteristics of the red man. He was a man of extraordinary parts in many respects, and best of all he was a man of prayer and an humble Christian.—Abingdon Virginian.

OBJECTION 1.
I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.
ANSWER.
If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.
OBJECTION 2.
I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.
ANSWER.
Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.
OBJECTION 3.
I can't make up my mind; call again.
ANSWER.
Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by
THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.
FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.
The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.
The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.
I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.
Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.
Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.
No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 26, 1867

What ought the South to Do?

The New York World, by last mail, has a lengthy and exceedingly suggestive and sober article in answer to the above question. The World starts out with the position, that from its knowledge of the Southern people, the Southern States will not adopt any measures for the call of State Conventions for the purpose of adopting the congressional programme contained in the Sherman bill. But it does not profess fully to understand the condition and animus of the Southern people. Others may understand it better, and therefore submits to the consideration of the Southern people, a number of deeply important suggestions. The cool, able and generally discreet views which that paper usually takes of national affairs, and its known devotion to the Constitution and civil liberty, make its suggestions very valuable and worthy of consideration by the Southern people.

It suggests, that the South may ultimately succeed in her moral resistance to the encroachments of unconstitutional power, provided she is united and will take only such a position as she will persistently maintain to the end, in spite of all she may suffer. But it strongly urges upon the South to avoid taking any step, about which there can arise any division among the white population—union being essential to success. Secondly, she must especially take such a position, as she will stand to forever, if need be. Therefore, it suggests, if opposition to the principles and practice of the Sherman bill, be the result of mere passion, feeling or prejudice, and not the result of settled, well-grounded principle and determination to the end, there is danger that the South might take a position now, from which it might recede in two, three or four years. Its advice therefore, is, if the South ever intends to admit universal negro suffrage, it is far better to admit it now, than to do so two, or three years hence, or that if it intends to adopt the Sherman bill programme into their State constitutions, at any time hence, by their own consent, or if it can be done or will be done, without the real grit of the South, by a combination of enough whites with the blacks to effect it, within two or three years, it is far better to do it at once.

The World will not and does not advise the South to proceed to accept the Sherman bill programme at once. It confesses its want of a sufficient knowledge of the determination and purpose of the South, to advise it. The Southern people must be their own judges in this matter; but it thinks it a plain case, that if the South cannot with great unanimity adopt the policy of "a masterly inactivity" and do nothing, and presevere in it through all the sufferings and injury through which they may be forced to pass, then in that case, it would be far better, to yield at once. The World evidently mistakes the South in one regard; i. e. that the great obstacle with the South in assenting to the terms of the Sherman bill, is the admission of universal negro suffrage. In regard to the utility and propriety of negro suffrage, it is a rare thing to find two opinions; yet the objection to the admission of negro suffrage is not so strong, as the objection and humiliation of being forced by their own acts, to acknowledge the right of Congress to interfere with the status and the rights of the States to manage their own internal concerns, and to force martial law upon the States in a time of peace. Secondly, to be forced by their own acts to disfranchise thousands of our best people. The true men of the South neither wish to disfranchise nor be disfranchised.

The Order for Adjournment.

It will strike many of our readers at a distance very strangely, that after a long session, the Legislature should have adjourned to meet again on the third Thursday in August. This will be the more surprising to many, in view of the recent action of Congress and the certainty of the speedy introduction of martial law in the State. Without expressing an opinion pro or con. as to the wisdom of the order, perhaps, it is well for us to present the reason which we learn influenced the action. It is understood by the friends of the measure in the Legislature, to be the fixed purpose of the opposers of the Stay Law recently passed by the Legislature, to press suits and collections regardless of the recent law, and to obtain the decision of the Court pronouncing it unconstitutional. This being understood, it seems to be the object of the friends of the Stay Law and of the order of adjournment, to come together in August if permitted, for the purpose of defeating such a purpose. It need not be blinked or concealed that there are members of the Legislature, who would not hesitate to abolish the Courts, if the Stay Law is interfered with.

VIRGINIA NOT A STATE.—If "the mother of States" be not a State, then where shall we find one? Verily, the vocabulary of the nation is undergoing rapid changes under radical domination. It is reported that Gov. Fenton, of New York, is seriously hesitating whether or not to surrender Capt. Olney to the demand of Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, upon the ground that Virginia is not a State. Were he to adopt that strange and unwarranted construction, he would present a very inconsistent attitude after so recently demanding Mr. Hughes of the Governor of the State of North Carolina. When he declines to surrender Olney upon that plea, he should forthwith set Hughes at large.

Gov. Pierpont, of Virginia, urges the Legislature of that State to call a State Convention, to form a Constitution in accordance with the Sherman bill programme. He admonishes them, that if they do not call one, that it will be done for them.

Our Federal Relations.

Our readers are aware, that a short time ago, several Southern gentlemen, on a visit to Washington city, ascertaining from their intercourse with members of Congress, and others, that the national troubles were becoming more threatening and complicated every day, in the hope of composing those troubles, two of them from North Carolina, prepared a plan of settlement to be offered by the Southern States, by their Legislatures to the Congress. This plan was presented to a number of gentlemen at Washington and approved.

Finally, the plan was submitted to our Legislature, by Dr. Speed, the Senator from Perquimans and Pasquotank, in order to test the sense of the body, in the following manner and form:

RESOLUTION IN REGARD TO FEDERAL RELATIONS.

WHEREAS, A plan has been agreed upon, and published by parties, representative men of the South, identified with the South in thought, feeling and interest, to be suggested to the Congress of the United States, as a basis of settlement of the delicate and difficult questions agitating the sections, to-wit:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

ARTICLE XIV.

SECTION 1. The Union under the Constitution is, and shall be, perpetual. No State shall pass any law or ordinance to secede or withdraw from the Union, and any such law or ordinance shall be null and void.

SEC. 2. The public debt of the United States, authorized by law, shall ever be held sacred and inviolate. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred, in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the Government or authority of the United States.

SEC. 3. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the States in which they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 4. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when any State shall, on account of race or color, or previous condition of servitude, exclude from voting at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, members of the Legislature or other officers elective by the people, any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, then the entire class of persons so excluded from the elective franchise, shall not be counted in the basis of representation.—No State shall require as a property qualification for voters more than two hundred and fifty dollars worth of taxable property, nor as an educational qualification, more education than enough to enable the voter to read the Constitution of the United States in the English language, and write legibly his own name.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

ARTICLE.

Every male citizen who has resided in this State for one year, and in the county in which he offers to vote six months, immediately preceding the day of election, and who can read the Constitution of the United States in the English language and can write his name, or who may be the owner of two hundred and fifty dollars worth of taxable property, shall be entitled to vote at all elections for Governor of the State, members of the Legislature and all other officers elective by the people of the State: Provided, That no person by reason of this article, shall be excluded from voting, who has heretofore exercised the elective franchise under the Constitution and laws of this State, or who, at the time of the adoption of this amendment may be entitled to vote under said Constitution and laws.

And whereas, from the outgirings of representative men of the North, in the event of the rejection by the States, of the amendment proposed by Congress for their ratification, as the 14th article of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States;

"That if those communities that have been in rebellion have anything to propose, if they think there is a better mode, a more generous mode, a mode better calculated to secure the peace and harmony and prosperity of this great land, let them come forward and propose it, and the people will listen and judge."

And whereas, it is now conceded, the aforesaid proposed amendment will not receive the assent of the constitutional number of States to ratify the same as a part of the Constitution of the United States; and whereas, we believe the before recited proposition is "a better mode, a more generous mode, a mode better calculated to secure the peace and harmony and prosperity of this great land;" and whereas, there is no sacrifice of honor, "in coming forward and proposing" the before recited plan as a basis of final settlement;

Be it therefore, Resolved, by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, That the State of North Carolina, desiring a final settlement of the troubles existing between the two great sections of the Union, will, looking to that end, adopt the aforesaid proposition by a Convention of her people.

The preamble and resolution on its introduction in the Senate, were referred to the joint committee on Federal relations. After a very full interchange of sentiment, Col. Hall, the Chairman of the committee, made the following report, which we think may be certainly claimed to be in accordance with the general sentiment of the Legislature and the people:

REPORT OF THE JOINT SELECT COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL RELATIONS UPON THE RESOLUTION (S. 167) IN REGARD TO FEDERAL RELATIONS.

The Committee on Federal Relations to whom was referred a "Resolution in regard to Federal Relations," beg leave to make the following report:

Your Committee are fully persuaded that the proposition contained in the Resolution, if submitted to the people of North Carolina, with an assurance that it would accomplish the object they have so much at heart, would be accepted by them. Wearied by the continued agitation of this vexed question; suffering severely from the effects of a disorganized social and political society, and satisfied that no material prosperity will ever be possible until a political union of the different States can be brought about upon a just and honorable basis; they would willingly agree that North Carolina should do everything in her power, consistent with her honor, to attain an end so much desired. And your Committee see nothing in the proposition, to which North Carolina could not or ought not at this time to consent, provided that by so doing a final settlement of our troubles could be arrived at.

But after a survey of the present indications of the political animus of the Federal Congress, your Committee can see no good that can be accomplished by the adoption of the Resolution, referred to them; but on the other hand, are of the opinion that such action on the part of the General Assembly, may be so construed as to place the people of the State in a position at once false and degrading. It is a matter of common fame, known to all, that the Congress has just passed an Act, in effect, destroying the organization of the State, and placing restrictions on her action, evidently intended as punishments of our people.

In view of this fact, it does seem to your Committee to be an inopportune time to come forward with propositions of our own, notwithstanding the fact, that we are now and have been at all times, since the final abandonment of armed resistance to the Federal government, willing to yield all the issues of the late unfortunate contest, and indeed more than might have been legitimately involved therein. Your Committee think there is a point, beyond which our self-respect and honor forbid us to go.—It suffer we must, let us try to conduct ourselves in this hour of our unparalleled misfortunes and woe, in such a manner as not to bring shame upon the record of the past, hoping that after the lapse of time, when wiser, more dispassionate and cooler counsels shall prevail, that the people of North Carolina will be better understood, and credence be accorded to their oft repeated assertion, that their great wish is now for the formation of a more perfect Union, and the restoration of peace and harmony on an indestructible basis.

For the reasons assigned, your Committee beg leave to be discharged from the further consideration of the Resolution.

E. D. HALL,
For the Committee.

On motion of Mr. Bullock, the Senate adjourned.

[In our report of this morning's proceedings we did unintentional injustice to Mr. McRae, the attentive and intelligent Senator from Robeson and Richmond, in regard to the bill to amend the charter of the Fayetteville & Florence railroad. Mr. McRae moved to take up the bill and upon its consideration made a most earnest and able appeal in its behalf. After the successful effort to strike out the sections requiring the Public Treasurer to subscribe five hundred thousand dollars to be laid on the second mortgage bond of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Rail Road. Mr. McRae, then, moved that the bill lie on the table, in order that it may be called up, after its friends could make some attempt to incorporate other features which might recommend it to the favorable consideration of the Senate.]

(CORRECTION.)

(Messrs. Patton and Latham of Washington, were represented as opposing on yesterday "a bill to abolish usury." This statement thought literally true, does those gentlemen injustice, by placing them in a false position. The bill was entitled "a bill to abolish usury," but this title, it seems, was a misnomer. The bill legalized any rate of interest on loans that might be agreed on by contracting parties if expressed in the contract. It was this feature that elicited the opposition of Messrs. Patton and Latham.)

OFFICIAL—THE MILITARY RECONSTRUCTION BILL.—The bill providing for the establishment of military despotism over ten States of the American Union, "and for other purposes," touching the next presidential election, reached the President after 4 o'clock P. M. Friday.—This fact will probably be a sufficient answer to the numerous inquires made yesterday why he had not vetoed it. A bill of such magnitude and importance requiries the most careful consideration, and there can be no doubt that it will receive such attention from the President, notwithstanding the immediate pressure of public business upon him.—National Republican.

PRESBYTERIAL NOTICE.—The Presbytery of Fayetteville stands adjourned to meet at Ashpole Church, Robeson county, N. C., on Thursday before the second Sabbath. (11th day,) in April, 1867, at 12 o'clock, M.

For the Sentinel.

Eastern Carolina.

Dear Sentinel:—From all that I can learn from the representations of discreet gentlemen who have been South, as from my own partial observations, we of the Old North State, are fareing as well if not better than others in States to the South of us. In the productions of the earth, in health, and above all in morals, our noble State holds its proud pre-eminence; a happy, quiet people, we only desire to be let alone. Our farmers have been successful in securing labor on fair terms for the coming crop. Content with a competence, freed from what Horace calls our people pursue the even tenor of their way. From an inspection of the monthly report made to the Agricultural Department at Washington City, I learn that Hertford county has exported about 400 bales of cotton, the corn crop was greatly shortened by the drought, the average yield per acre is set down at five bushels. Wheat is becoming so indifferent that a majority of our farmers have abandoned its cultivation, the yield per acre is reported to be seven bushels. On the farms upon Ahoskie, in the Southern part of the county, the production is larger, but in other parts it is by no means as large.—Judging from the report, one would suppose that the sweet potato was the most profitable price that we could raise, the average yield is set down at 150 bushels per acre. The great difficulty in regard to the potato is, that a majority of our people do not know how to preserve them during the Winter months. Some years ago, I received from some gentleman in Philadelphia a few tubers of a potato imported from Japan, which it was said was never injured by frost. This I regarded as the great desideratum, and to ensure success in producing seed, I placed them in the hands of one of our most observant planters, my lamented friend, the late Thos. P. Little, Esq., whose untimely death disappointed my hopes. If among your numerous readers any have planted the Japan potato, they would greatly oblige us in this part of the State, by communicating to the Sentinel the result of their labors.

One more item from the report, may interest you greatly. During the year 1866, 250 head of sheep are said to have been killed by dogs. When it is remembered that Hertford cannot be enumerated among the sheep-raising counties, this is a fearful decimation of that useful animal. We have been assured that the subject of passing a law, by the National Legislature, for the protection of sheep, will be urged upon the attention of Congress by the Agricultural Department in its next annual report.

An article prepared by the writer for the press, on the subject of the creation of cotton factories in the South, has drawn the attention of leading men, and certain newspapers, in such a manner, that I am induced to refer to it again, in the hope that some action may be taken that will eventuate in good.

Three important results will ensue from the establishment of factories in every county. First, by the manufacture of our own cotton, we shall save the exorbitant tax that the federal government has imposed on the growth of cotton.—Second, the scrip will greatly relieve the want of a sufficient circulating medium. Third, profitable employment will be afforded to women and children, who now are compelled to do field labor, or other service, in which their sex or tender age, render them incompetent.

Your columns will not allow me space to dwell on the profits arising from the proper management of the factories, the impetus given to the industries of the country, the influence exerted on the morals of each community, the increase of our Common School fund from the profits derived, and the means of safe investment offered to every County, better than any Savings Bank that could be inaugurated. But of this more hereafter.

During the interim of our Legislature I contemplated, an article on the subject of the draining of Swamp Lands; and my ideas were stimulated by a scene that I witnessed in a journey through a neighboring country. An enterprising man of limited means owned a small piece of land on a swamp of inexhaustible richness; on the opposite side of the same swamp lived a cheerless man of ample means, to whom the farmer of the small piece of land proposed that jointly, they should drain the swamp. Seeing the intentions of his neighbor, and knowing well from his energy and industry that he would drain the land, even if he were unaided, the large landholder refused to assist, and the poor man, with his own hands, opened a canal that enhanced the lands of his neighbor, at least 200 per cent without its costing him a dollar.—It occurred to me at once, that the Legislature should pass an act compelling owners of lands, under such circumstances, to contribute to the draining and improvement of them, in proportion to the amount of land each one possessed in the vicinity of the proposed operations.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, offer an extensive lot of materials for coach-makers and sadlers.

Jas. M. Towles offers a fine lot of N. C. Hay for sale.

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY.—It will be seen by our advertising columns, that Dr. Edward Warren, late Surgeon General of this State, has connected himself with the Washington Medical University of Baltimore, as a Professor.—His qualifications eminently fit him for the position. See notice.

TEMPERANCE.—It is gratifying to the country to learn that the Congressional Temperance Society has been revived. It is impossible to contemplate the action of the Congress, looking at it from a Southern stand point, without attributing a good deal of its animus to the immediate influence of John Barleycorn. Whether this idea is strictly just to that body, we are not advised, but we find such an impression prevails to some extent among Southern people. Hence, much interest is felt among sober, discreet people in the South, that the influence of the Congressional Temperance Society should become universal in that body, in anticipation that a better and a more conservative spirit may grow up among the law-makers of the land.

The Vote on Adjournment.

The following is the vote by which the House concurred in the Senate resolution to adjourn on the 4th of March, to meet again on the 3rd Monday in August next. Mr. Boyd demanded the yeas and nays:

YEAS—Messrs. Autry, Barden, Beasley, Black, Blair, Blythe, Bowe, Bright, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Daniel, Durham, Everett, Galloway, Gambril, Garris, Harding, Henderson, Hinnant, Horton, of Wilkes, Jenkins, of Granville, Jones, Latham, of Craven, Logan, Lyon, Lutterloh, May, Martin, Moore, of Chatham, Moore, of Hertford, Morton, Neal, Perry, of Wake, Richardson, Rogers, Rountree, Scoggin, Simpson, Smith, of Duplin, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Umstead, Waugh, Whitfield, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Williams, of Yancey, and Womble.—49.

NAYS—Messrs. Allen, Ashworth, Baker, Boyd, Brown, Bryson, Clement, Collins, Crawford, of Macon, Davis, Davidson Garrett, Granberry Guess, Harper, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Houston, Hutchison, Jenkins, of Gaston, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Washington, Lowe, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McRae, Morehead, Patton, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Rosebro', Russ, Shelton, Smith, of Guilford, Vestal, Walker, Whitley, Wilson, of Forsyth, Wilson, of Perquimans, and Woodard—45.

ERRORS IN A PRINTED BIBLE.—A London paper notices a curious misprint in one of the editions of the New Testament printed at Oxford where the word glad was converted into clad. The person who detected the error received the reward of one guinea which the Oxford press offers for such a discovery. It is an extraordinary fact that, with this standing offer of a reward, and all the vigilance of readers, Sunday school teachers and scholars this error of a single letter is the only one that has been detected in upwards of sixty different editions.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

In the House, a resolution was passed rather condemnatory of Mr. Wentworth's charges of corruption of members involving the honor of the House, and ordering his committee to report to morrow.

A resolution that the House concur in Secretary McCulloch's views of contraction of the currency, and an early resumption of specie payments, encountered loud objections from all sides.

The House went into committee of the whole on the tax bill. Advertisements were put on the free list. The bond required of Inspectors of distilleries is five thousand dollars. An amendment was adopted taxing all qualities of cigars five dollars per thousand. The amendment abolishing the cotton tax was rejected by a vote of 65 to 95.

In the Senate, a bill consolidating and providing for the payment of the National debt, was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Patterson announced his intention to disregard the joint resolution of the Tennessee Legislature, requesting his resignation.

A half million of dollars was appropriated for improvements in the Mississippi river, at Des Moines.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

For Sale by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	30
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These The World always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of The World for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, speed, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. The World adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
